

Disaster Happens Without Warning!

Disaster Recovery (DR) is something you can't buy after the fact. Do you have a DR strategy and plan to save your business?

Disasters can happen any time. It can be nature-made, man-made, internal or external. Most of the time it does not give a warning.

Protect your Business with Thoroughbred's off-site DR/Back-up products and services. There are several levels of DR support available to fit every budget.

Don't rely on old back-up methods like tapes. Have you analyzed your tapes to see if they actually contain data? Call us for the safe way to protect your business investment.
